Saturday, November 7 @ 9:15pm

Slow Food Festival Shorts:

Crapa Pansa • Domingo Franco Assado Heterogenic • Nana • The Red Gold Il Senso della Vite

A collection of six short films, all on a favorite topic: food! "Crapa Pansa" takes us to a Christmas lunch in Piacenza; "Domingo Frango Assado" is a brush with the occult; in "Heterogenic" a mad scientist breeds a special variety of corn; "Nana" is a story of a truffle dog; in "The Red Gold" a mother tells her child a bedtime story; and "Il Senso della Vite" is a comedy about a girl and her collection.

Thursday, November 5 @ 11:30 am

Sunday, November 8 @ 11:30 am

The 1000 Euro Generation

(Generazione 1000 Euro)

depicts the current plight of Europe's young, who, for the first time, must live at a lower standard than their parents. Eking out a living on 1000 euros a month, the protagonists of this insightful comedy face job pressures, love and the lure of success in the new world economy.

Thursday, November 5 @ 5:30pm

Sunday, November 8 @ 9:00pm

Il Divo

A visually striking black comedy of former prime minister Giulio Andreotti's remarkable political career. A blistering indictment of Italy's recent political system, this film reveals, with both outrage and humor, a vast array of skulduggery attributed to "Il Divo Giulio" Andreotti. Winner of 14 international film awards.

Thursday, November 5 @ 8:20 pm

Friday, November 6 @ 2:00 pm

Saturday, November 7 @ 4:45 pm

We Can do That

(Si Puo Fare)

A rousing comedy based on true events. Nello, a former trade unionist, uses his managerial skills to transform a cooperative of mental patients into a successful company. Highly original, this hilarious feel-good story won film festival awards around the world.

Friday, November 6 @ 7:15pm

Saturday, November 7 @ 11:30am
