Carved Pumpkin and Painted Pumpkin Contest Rules

Contest Date: Thursday October 31, 2014

Location: Main Stage Lawn, Honolulu Zoo

Judging time: 7:00 pm

- This contest is free to enter. One entry per person. An entry is One (1) Carved or Painted Pumpkin.
- Buy or grow your own pumpkin.
- All pumpkin carving and/or decorating must be done at home, prior to entering the Honolulu Zoo.
- We encourage you to use natural materials & non-toxic paint that, if consumed by an animal, will not harm them. Do not use items like toothpicks, yarn, pins, glue or other man-made materials for decoration.
- Use of candles is prohibited. Each carved pumpkin will have a hole of sufficient size to enable HZS to illuminate it with a battery-operated candle from the inside. Participants may not bring their own lighting devices.
- All entries must be submitted and registered no later than 6:45 pm. Late entries will not be judged for prizes.
- Winners will be announced on stage after Costume Contest is completed. Must be present to win.
- HZS will provide judges. All decisions by the judges are final. We reserve the right to change the rules to better serve the goals of the contest and the well-being of our visitors.
- Participants agree HZS and its designees may take photographs and/or videos (images) of the participants and/or costumes in connection with participating in this activity and consent to the use of these images for promotional and or marketing purposes without compensation.

Judging Categories: Three main themes will be judged: Spooky, Funny and Animal.

A winner will be chosen for each theme from the following age categories: 2-5 years, 6-12 years and 13+ years.

Best in Show will be chosen from any theme/category.

Prizes will be announced and posted the night of the contest and may be changed or substituted by HZS.

 Pumpkins become the property of HZS and will be donated to the Honolulu Zoo for use as animal enrichment. ***
