Performing Arts Center
Presents “Wolf Tails” Children’s Play
October 23-24 & 30-31

(Honolulu, Hawaii) What do you get when the Big Bad Wolf, Little Red Riding Hood and the Three Little Pigs collide with hilarious comedy? Kaimuki High School Performing Arts Center’s production of “Wolf Tails”! The 20-member student cast of Kaimuki High School Performing Arts Center (KHSPAC) will perform the play at the school auditorium.

Targeted for younger audiences, but fun for all ages, Wolf Tails will be performed on Saturday, October 23 at 7 p.m., with 3 p.m. matinees on October 24, 30 & 31. Kids under three are free, ages 3 to 5 are $3, and students, military and seniors with I.D. are $5. Adult tickets are $10. Box office opens thirty-minutes before each performance for ticket sales.

“Kids will love this play and learn important lessons about the pitfalls of bullying, spreading rumors and stereotyping while having a good time laughing and enjoying the story,” said Director Rikki Jo Hickey, the acting instructor at Kaimuki High School. Peggy Anne Sigmund, play write, and an advanced acting class at the high school created the original script.
