TECHHUI CONFERENCE
with Pacific New Media

Come meet the movers and shakers in Hawaii's technology sector from those leading the revolution in clean energy to the state's top software developers and engineers. Discover exciting technologies being developed by Hawaii companies and find opportunities for employment, partnership and education.

The conference will feature keynote talks by Kaz Hashimoto, Jeff Mikulina and Moriba Jah in the morning and move on to panel discussions based on the most popular TechHui groups with technology demonstrations by Oceanit, Ikayzo and other participating companies.
