Kaimuki Business & Professional Association

Founded in 1946, the Kaimuki Business and Professional Association (KBPA) is an organization dedicated to the improvement of Kaimuki by community involvement and welfare through the efforts of its members. It sponsors numerous community events annually in the Kaimuki area and serves as a voice to promote business and professional viewpoints on issues and concerns impacting Kaimuki.

How Can KBPA Help You?

KBPA members find that the organization's projects, leadership, and teamwork experience enable them to integrate into the community in a rewarding way. Through your participation in KBPA activities, you will have opportunities to:

- Meet and network with businesses, professionals, and residents in the community.
- Market your business in the community.
- Keep yourself informed about current developments affecting the Kaimuki area.
- Participate in the community activities and regular membership meetings.
