FRIDAY OCTOBER 16, 2009

Aloha Vintner Ernest!

There is still time to start your holiday wine!

Yes there is, but its running out – So don't wait!!! :)

It's the ides of October, as a wonderful customer pointed out to me today... that means there is still a little over two months left until christmas is here, & your custom labelled wine bottles are the envy of everyone!

Hate the stress of shopping for presents? Well then, it is time to have the most FUN time shopping ever – by tasting wine! All you have to do?

Come in for less than an hour, relax, unwind, enjoy a few sips of wine, and Bam! 30 people checked off your list! (well, maybe less, since you'll want to keep just one or two or a dozen bottles yourself...)

No time? That's fine! We can accept phone or email orders to get your wine barrels started, and can guide you to a style you're looking for. (We'll taste a small sip for you. Just to make sure!)

Call us at 738-0738!
