THREE SUMMERS aka Três Verões (2019-Brazil/France) 94m  D: Sandra Kogut. Regina Casé, Rogério Fróes, Otávio Müller. Over three summers, 2015 to 2017, more than 1000 arrest warrants were issued during Operation Car Wash, Brazil's anticorruption campaign. In this sharp satire, 50-something Madá (Casé), the formidably capable caretaker of a luxury Rio beachside property, is stuck caring for elderly Lira (Rogério Fróes) when his son Edgar (Müller), Madá's employer, gets arrested for money laundering. With no income, Madá gets creative in this winner of 7 awards. For ages 12 and older.

SLUMDOG MILLIONAIRE (2008-UK/France/US/India) 120m * D: Danny Boyle, Loveleen Tandan. Dev Patel, Freida Pinto, Madhur Mittal, Irfan Khan. Jamal (Patel), a young man brought up in the slums of Mumbai, is accused of cheating as a contestant on the Indian version of "Who Wants to be a Millionaire?" As he explains to the brutal police interrogator (Khan) why he knows the answers, Jamal's life story unfolds: a thrilling journey of dire poverty, danger, adventure and true love. Vividly pulsating with color and life, this extraordinary film won 154 awards including 8 Oscars. Rated R.

THE CHRISTOPHERS (2025-UK/US) 100m  D: Steven Soderbergh (TRAF-FIC). Michaela Coel, Ian McKellen, Jessica Gunning, James Corden. Julian Sklar (McKellen) used to be a giant in the London art scene in the 1960s, but now he never touches a paintbrush. His estranged children, Sallie (Gunning) and Barnaby (Corden) hire art restorer Lori (Coel) to complete a series of unfinished canvases that Julian had abandoned years ago—so they could sell them and have an inheritance when he dies. This witty and literate movie won 1 award. Rated R.

THE BRIDGE Episodes 9 & 10 aka Bron/Broen (2011-Denmark/Sweden) 117m * D: Henrik Georgsson. Sofia Helin, Kim Bodnia, Dag Malmberg, Puk Scharbau, Lars Simonsen. When the identity of the 'Truth Terrorist' is revealed, Danish detective Martin's (Bodnia) personal risk in the case reaches a crisis level. Despite his differences with his Swedish counterpart Saga (Helin), Martin needs her skills to help catch the master criminal in this spectacular season finale. For ages 16 and older.

TUNER (2025-Canada/US) 108m  ½ D: Daniel Roher (NAVALNY). Leo Woodall, Dustin Hoffman, Havana Rose Liu, Lior Raz, Herbie Hancock, Jean Reno. Young, cash-strapped New York City piano tuner Niki (Woodall) suffers from hyperacusis, a condition that makes him painfully sensitive to sounds. He discovers he has an aptitude for cracking safes in this heist movie/romance. In addition to an inventive story, this film is a treat for the ears, featuring exceptional sound design and a splendid soundtrack. Rated R.

PING PONG (2002-Japan) 114m  ½ D: Fumihiko Sori. Yôsuke Kubozuka, Arata Iura, Sam Lee, Shidô Nakamura, Mari Natsuki. Friends since childhood, brash Peco (Kubozuka) and introverted Smile (Iura) belong to a neighborhood ping pong "dojo". Peco wants more than anything to win the high school ping pong championship, but three talented competitors stand in his way: transfer student China (Lee), Dragon (Nakamura) from a rival school and... his best buddy Smile. Winner of 6 awards. For ages 10 and older.

THE SHEEP DETECTIVES (2026-UK/US) 109m  ½ D: Kyle Balda (MINIONS). Hugh Jackman, Emma Thompson, voiced by Patrick Stewart, Julia Louis-Dreyfus, Bryan Cranston. Kind-hearted shepherd George (Jackman) reads detective novels to his sheep each night, even though he assumes they can't understand. When a shocking crime disrupts life on the farm, the sheep are compelled to solve the mystery in this endearing tale. Winner of 1 award so far. Rated PG.

ENDEAVOUR: CANTICLE (2017-UK) 90m * D: Michael Lennox. Shaun Evans, Roger Allam, Sylvestra Le Touzel, Pearl Chanda. Detective Endeavour Morse (Evans) is tasked with protecting Joy Pettybon (Le Touzel), a self-appointed guardian of the nation's morals who's been receiving death threats. He'd much rather investigate the murder of a laborer, whose body was found behind a pub. The clues lead to a rock band that was practicing near the laborer's jobsite in this 'clash of the generations' episode. For ages 14 and older.

THE ASSIGNMENT (1997-Canada) 115m  ½ D: Christian Duguay (A BAG OF MARBLES). Aidan Quinn, Donald Sutherland, Ben Kingsley, Claudia Ferri. Decent, hardworking Annibal Ramirez (Quinn) of the US Navy is recruited by Jack Shaw (Sutherland), deputy chief of the CIA, to impersonate his look-alike, Carlos the Jackal, the most dangerous terrorist in the world. To accomplish this feat, Annibal is put through a grueling training routine to ensure he behaves like Carlos. If Annibal survives this mission, will he ever be the same? Roger Ebert's review says, "intelligent and gripping." Rated R

REILLY ACE OF SPIES Episodes 1 & 2 (1983-UK) 128m  ½ D: Jim Goddard, Martin Campbell. Sam Neill, Leo McKern, Jeananne Crowley, David Suchet. In this fascinating series based on real history, Russian-born Jew Sidney Reilly (Neill) becomes one of the greatest spies to ever work for Britain. Episode 1 details his first espionage mission, where he escapes detention in Baku in 1901. In Episode 2, Reilly is sent to Port Arthur, Manchuria in 1904 as a war between the Russians and the Japanese looms. Well-written and performed with an eye to period detail, this series is a must-see. For ages 15 and older.

THE BRIDGE Episodes 2.1 & 2.2 aka Bron/Broen (2013-Sweden/Denmark) 116m * A tanker heads toward the Øresund Bridge, smashing into one of its piers. When the coast guard boards the vessel they find no crew and discover five youths in chains who are drugged and incoherent. When assigned to the case, Swedish detective Saga (Helin) brings in her Danish colleague Martin (Bodnia), though she's been told he's not recovered from last year's trauma. Will Martin be up to the task? For ages 16 and older.

BLACK BREAD aka Pa negra (2010-Spain) 108m  D: Agustí Villaronga. Francesc Colomer, Marina Comas, Nora Navas, Sergi López. In this visually striking adaptation of Emili Teixidor's novel set in the Catalan countryside in 1944, 10-year-old Andreu (Colomer) discovers the bodies of a dead father and son in the woods. In a community divided by Civil War, Andreu's developing moral consciousness struggles between what he's told by his teachers, by the police and his own family against what he sees as the truth. This coming-of-age drama won 31 awards. For ages 12 and older.

BORGEN Episodes 4 & 5 (2010-Denmark) 116m * D: Rumle Hammerich, Annette K. Olesen. Sidse Babett Knudsen, Birgitte Hjort Sørensen, Pilou Asbæk, Mikael Birkkjær. Prime Minister Birgitte Nyborg (Knudsen) navigates her first international diplomatic crisis when a CIA rendition flight carrying Afghan terrorist suspects lands at Greenland's Thule Air Base. Later, Nyborg's bill to promote women to more positions of power is challenged by Denmark's oligarchs. For ages 14 and older.

PROJECT HAIL MARY (2026-US) 156m * D: Phil Lord, Christopher Miller (SPIDER-MAN: INTO THE SPIDER-VERSE). Ryan Gosling, Sandra Hüller, James Ortiz. Middle school science teacher Ryland Grace (Gosling) wakes up alone on a spaceship many lightyears from home. He recalls his mission: rescue the sun from a substance that is dimming it, endangering life on earth. Grace has a monumental task to accomplish, but luckily, a new friendship means he won't have to solve it alone. This playful, heartwarming buddy comedy with eye-popping visuals won 9 awards so far. Rated PG-13.

REILLY ACE OF SPIES Episodes 3 & 4 (1983-UK) 101m  ½ D: Martin Campbell. Sam Neill, Leo McKern, Bill Nighy, Diana Hardcastle, Dennis Lill. One of two British operatives in Germany is killed, and Reilly (Neill) is sent to aid Goschen (Nighy), the remaining agent. Goschen is so inexperienced that Reilly decides not to reveal his identity in this suspenseful episode. Later, Reilly goes to Paris, ostensibly to find Australian oil developer D'Arcy (Lill), but really to hunt down Margaret, his errant wife. Reilly instead finds his estranged half-sister, Anna (Hardcastle). For ages 15 and older.

SING STREET (2016-Ireland/UK/US) 106m * D: John Carney (ONCE). Ferdia Walsh-Peelo, Aidan Gillen, Lucy Boynton, Jack Reynor, Mark McKenna. In 1985, when Dublin teen Conor's (Walsh-Peelo) formerly well-to-do parents pack him off to a new (and rougher-edged) school to help with the family finances, Conor meets Raphina (Boynton). As she's just too cool with her Pat Benatar hairdo and her dreams of a fashion career—Conor decides he must win her heart by starting a band. This love story powered by the joyous style and spirit of '80s rock won 3 awards. Rated PG-13.

CAROLINA CAROLINE (2025-US) 107m  D: Adam Rehmeier. Samara Weaving, Kyle Gallner, Kyra Sedgwick, Jon Gries. In a small southern town, wide-eyed country girl Caroline (Weaving) watches Oliver (Gallner) perform a con job and immediately wants "in". He drives a cool Chevy. She wants to explore a wider world. When the two get together, crime is like a thrilling drug. Collider calls this romance "a flashier, sexier Bonnie and Clyde." For ages 15 and older.
