THE BROKENWOOD MYSTERIES: THEY'RE OUT THERE ALRIGHT (2026-New Zealand) 93m  ½ D: Geoffrey Cawthorn. Neill Rea, Fern Sutherland, Jarod Rawiri, Cristina Serban Ionda, Fleur Saville. When a chef is found dead in a “crop circle” burnt into a golf course, all of Brokenwood is abuzz with rumors of an alien invasion. Coincidentally, a UFO convention is in town, with alien abduction expert Zelda (Saville) actively inviting extraterrestrial visitors. Detectives Mike (Rea) and Kristin (Sutherland) try to find the murderer, ET or not, in this very funny episode. For ages 14 and older.

BORGEN Season 1 Episodes 6, 7 & 8 (2010-Denmark) 178m  ½ D: Annette K. Olesen, Mikkel Nørgaard. Sidse Babett Knudsen, Birgitte Hjort Sørensen, Pilou Asbæk, Mikael Birkkjær, Lars Brygmann. Prime Minister Birgitte Nyborg's (Knudsen) first state visit goes awry when the president of Turgistan demands the extradition of a dissident poet. A billion Euro investment in Danish wind turbine technology is at stake. Meanwhile, Birgitte's spin doctor Kasper (Asbæk) is stalking his journalist ex-girlfriend Katrine (Sørensen) in this turbulent set of episodes. For ages 14 and older.

ENDEAVOUR: LAZARETTO (2017-UK) 93m * D: Börkur Sigþórsson. Shaun Evans, Roger Allam, John Hopkins, David Yelland, Sara Vickers, Anton Lesser. Police informant Terence Bakewell dies in bed 10 of the Fosdick ward at the Cowley general hospital. Three patients had died in the same bed over the past five weeks, all operated on by aging surgeon Sir Merlyn Chubb (Yelland). Ambitious Dr. Powell (Hopkins) tells DC Morse (Evans) that Chubb is to blame, but the evidence lies elsewhere. In his free time Morse uses his skills to search for Joan (Vickers), Fred Thursday's (Allam) errant daughter. For ages 14 and older.

PALM SPRINGS (2020-US/Hong Kong) 90m  ½ D: Max Barbakow. Andy Samberg, Cristin Milioti, J.K. Simmons, Meredith Hagner. In this delightful romantic sci-fi comedy, Nyles (Samberg) meets family black sheep Sarah (Milioti) at a Palm Springs wedding. Bored and abandoned by his girlfriend Misty (Hagner), Nyles helps Sarah with her maid of honor speech. The two bond, and when Sarah follows Nyles into a mysterious cave, their troubles begin in this winner of 16 awards. Rated R.

THE BRIDGE Episodes 2.3 & 2.4 aka Bron/Broen (2013-Sweden/Denmark) 121m * D: Henrik Georgsson. Sofia Helin, Kim Bodnia, Dag Malmberg, Lars Simonsen, Peter Wang Christoffersen. Four individuals wearing animal masks post a video online claiming responsibility for the tanker disaster. After painstaking police work, Saga (Helin) and Martin's (Bodnia) team close in on the identities and locations of the terrorists—who soon realize the police are on their trail. Meanwhile, against everyone's advice, Martin visits Jens (Simonsen), his son's murderer, in prison. For ages 16 and older.

REILLY ACE OF SPIES Episodes 5 & 6 (1983-UK) 102m  ½ D: Jim Goddard. Sam Neill, Leo McKern, Norman Rodway, Celia Gregory. Supposedly disillusioned by his treatment by the British over the D'Arcy affair, Reilly (Neill) is now in St. Petersburg working with the Germans to sell warships to Russia. This is an alarming development for Basil Zakharov (McKern), who represents British shipbuilders bidding for the same contract. Has Reilly really become a stateless mercenary only concerned with personal gain? This lavish production with vintage costumes and impeccable art direction frames a tale of vicious cross and double-cross. For ages 15 and older.

READY OR NOT (2019-US/Canada) 95m  D: Matt Bettinelli-Olpin, Tyler Gillett (ABIGAIL). Samara Weaving, Adam Brody, Mark O'Brien, Andie MacDowell. On the night of her wedding, Grace (Weaving) is anxious to fit in with her new family, whose game company generates bajillions of dollars. Her wedding to her beloved Alex (O'Brien) is like a dream—champagne flows, the chandeliers glitter, the rich mahogany gleams. Then she is told she must participate in an old family tradition: she must play a game. This outrageous horror comedy won 4 awards. Rated R.

THE JERICHO MILE (1979-US) 97m  ½ D: Michael Mann (HEAT). Peter Strauss, Richard Lawson, Roger E. Mosley, Brian Dennehy, Billy Green Bush, Ed Lauter. Convict Murphy (Strauss) is serving a life sentence for murder at Folsom Prison. A loner, Murphy spends much of his time running around the facility's track. His speed gains the attention of prison psychiatrist Dr. Janowski (Lewis), who encourages Murphy to compete at the Olympics. This inspiring movie was filmed at Folsom Prison among the prison population. Peter Strauss ran 70 miles per week to prepare for his role as Murphy. For ages 12 and older. Winner of 5 awards.

CASTLE OF OWLS aka Ninja hichô: Fukurô no shiro (1963-Japan) 91m  D: Eiichi Kudô (THE GREAT KILLING). Ryûtarô Ôtomo, Minoru Ôki, Hizuru Takachiho, Chiyoko Honma, Chôichirô Kawarasaki, Masao Mishima. Juzo (Ôtomo), ninja of the Iga clan, swears to kill Shogun Toyotomi Hideyoshi to avenge his family. His resolve strengthens when a wealthy merchant offers to fund the assassination. But his old friend Gohei (Ôki) joins forces with the rival Koga ninja, and lady ninja Kohagi (Takachiho), his beloved, begs him to leave the violent life behind. Will he complete his mission? Rarely seen in the West, this ninja movie is a classic of the genre, with plenty of very cool ninja stunts. For ages 12 and older.

SIRAT (2025-Spain/France) 114m  ½ D: Oliver Laxe. Sergi López, Bruno Núñez Arjona, Stefania Gadda, Jade Oukid, Richard 'Bigui' Bellamy. Middle class dad Luis (López) and his son Esteban (Arjona) arrive in the North African desert in the family car looking for their daughter/sister Mar. In the expanse of Moroccan sand there is nothing but a massive set of speakers set up for a rave—the sound they produce echoes off the canyon walls. No one has seen Mar—they might find her at the next rave, across the vast desert. This brilliant, harrowing, apocalyptic winner of 50 awards is unforgettable. Rated R.

THE ODYSSEY (1997-US/UK/Italy/Germany/Turkey) 180m  ½ D: Andrei Konchalovsky. Armand Assante, Greta Scacchi, Geraldine Chaplin, Jeroen Krabbé, Christopher Lee, Irene Papas, Bernadette Peters, Eric Roberts, Isabella Rossellini. After the birth of his son Telemachus, Odysseus (Assante), King of Ithaca, leaves for battle in the Trojan War. He is victorious but offends the gods with his pride. Poseidon punishes him with a curse: He and his men are doomed to wander forever, never to return home. This epic tale of Odysseus's journey features deadly monsters created by Jim Henson and spectacular visuals of Homer's Mediterranean. Winner of 3 awards. Rated PG-13.

ENDEAVOUR: HARVEST (2017-UK) 93m * D: Jim Loach. Shaun Evans, Roger Allam, Joan Vickers, Sheila Hancock, Sean Rigby, Dakota Blue Richards. In this spooky episode, DC Morse (Evans) travels to a little village outside of Oxford where a body, assumed to be the remains of a botanist who had disappeared five years ago, was found. Morse finds himself amid strange locals who practice ancient pagan rituals in the fading sunlight and withered leaves of fall. He even has a tarot reading by a cackling old crone (Hancock). For ages 14 and older. Happy Halloween!

THE BATTLE OF OSLO aka Blücher (2025-Norway) 94m  ½ D: Daniel Fahre. Bjørn Sundquist, Andrea Berntzen, Eldar Skar. On April 9, 1940, Colonel Birger Eriksen (Sundquist) of Norway's Oscarsborg Fortress, ignoring the warnings of junior officers, issues a command to open fire on the German heavy cruiser Blücher. It was by no means an easy decision. No one could confirm the nationality of the cruiser sailing down the fjord to Oslo, and the Blücher was part of the first wave of Germany's invasion of Norway. Though he saved many lives that day, Eriksen is questioned by a military commission in 1946 to justify his actions in this thoughtful film. Winner of 1 award. For ages 12 and older.

LA CASA (2024-Spain) 80m  D: Álex Montoya. David Verdager, Luis Callejo, Óscar de la Fuente, Olivia Molina, María Romanillos, Lorena López, Marta Belenguer. After the death of their father Antonio (Callejo), three siblings and their families arrive at Antonio's modest vacation home to decide its fate. Eldest sibling Vicente (de la Fuente) is eager to sell. The youngest, Carla (López), isn't so invested. The story flows mostly through middle son José (Verdager), whose memories of past summers warmed by family love fill the screen. Winner of 19 awards. For ages 10 and older.
