HADESTOWN: THE MUSICAL (2026-UK/US) 141m  D: Brett Sullivan. Reeve Carney, André De Shields, Amber Gray, Eva Noblezada, Patrick Page. In this re-imagining of two Greek myths, the capitalist Hell of Hadestown challenges two loving couples: Orpheus (Carney) and Eurydice (Noblezada); and Hades (Page) and Persephone (Gray). Flaunting its New Orleans-flavored jazz and blues score with verve and style, it's no surprise that this Broadway hit won 8 Tonys. This filmization gives the audience the best of both worlds: the electricity of a live show and the intimate close-ups that only a camera can provide. For all ages.

THE BROKENWOOD MYSTERIES: ANGELS AND DEMONS (2026-New Zealand) 91m * ½ D: Peter Burger. Neill Rea, Fern Sutherland, Scott Smart, Roy Ward, Karl Willetts. Church services have never been so popular in Brokenwood—a charismatic new clergyman has arrived in town. Zach Mantell (Smart) the surfing priest has everyone smitten, especially Rev. Greene (Ward). When Mrs. Mantell is found murdered in the church cemetery, Mike (Neill) and company have a tough mystery to crack. Who would do such a thing? For ages 14 and older.

METEORS aka Météors (2025-France) 104m * D: Hubert Charuel. Paul Kircher, Idir Azougli, Salif Cissé (ALL HANDS ON DECK). In an underpopulated rural region of France, twenty-somethings Mika (Kircher) and Dan (Azougli) have big dreams but few means of getting the money to achieve them. After botching a bone-headed scheme involving a Maine coon cat, they end up working for their friend Tony (Cissé) as part of their probation in this funny and poignant coming-of-age comedy. For ages 12 and older.

BORGEN Season 1 Episodes 9 & 10 (2010-Denmark) 116m  D: Annette K. Olesen. Sidse Babett Knudsen, Birgitte Hjort Sørensen, Pilou Asbæk, Mikael Birkkjær. Birgitte's (Knudsen) job as Prime Minister places huge demands on her husband Philip (Birkkjær) at home. When Philip accepts a plum tech industry job Birgitte is relieved, as he finally seems happy. But that too comes under threat when the defense minister's purchase of fighter jets comes under scrutiny. Despite Birgitte's efforts in keeping a transparent and squeaky-clean administration, her popularity is sinking. Will she remain in power? For ages 14 and older.

TEN WOMEN IN BLACK aka Kuroi jûnin no onna (1961-Japan) 103m * D: Kon Ichikawa (THE BURMESE HARP). Fujiko Yamamoto, Mariko Miyagi, Tamao Nakamura, Kyôko Kishida, Eiji Funakoshi, Keiko Kishi. Shameless philanderer Kaze (Funakoshi) has a sweet wife (Yamamoto) and nine girlfriends, who all know each other. Kaze is as useless as he is pretty, and chases skirts more than he works at the TV studio. The ten women conspire together to kill him in this blacker than black comedy, which skewers Japan's misogynistic labor policies. For ages 15 and older.

THE BATTLE OF OSLO aka Blücher (2025-Norway) 94m * ½ D: Daniel Fahre. Bjørn Sundquist, Andrea Berntzen, Eldar Skar. On April 9, 1940, Colonel Birger Eriksen (Sundquist) of Norway's Oscarsborg Fortress, ignoring the warnings of junior officers, issues a command to open fire on the German heavy cruiser Blücher. It was by no means an easy decision. No one could confirm the nationality of the cruiser sailing down the fjord to Oslo, and the Blücher was part of the first wave of Germany's invasion of Norway. Though he saved many lives that day, Eriksen is questioned by a military commission in 1946 to justify his actions in this thoughtful film. Winner of 1 award. For ages 12 and older.

THE RIVALS OF AMZIAH KING (2025-US/UK) 130m * ½ D: Andrew Patterson. Matthew McConaughey, Bruce Davis, Rob Morgan, Angelina LookingGlass, Kurt Russell. Matthew McConaughey stars as Amziah, beekeeper, musician and pillar of his rural community. While at a local diner, he reconnects with his former foster daughter Kateri (LookingGlass), who becomes his keen beekeeping disciple. When his hives get stolen, this feel-good tale revs up to become a cracking crime thriller. As big and deliciously messy as a plate of Oklahoma barbecue, this tall tale has side adventures galore. Rated R.

LA CASA (2024-Spain) 80m * D: Álex Montoya. David Verdaguer, Luis Callejo, Óscar de la Fuente, Olivia Molina, María Romanillos, Lorena López, Marta Belenguer. After the death of their father Antonio (Callejo), three siblings and their families arrive at Antonio's modest vacation home to decide its fate. Eldest sibling Vicente (de la Fuente) is eager to sell. The youngest, Carla (López), isn't so invested. The story flows mostly through middle son José (Verdaguer), whose memories of past summers warmed by family love fill the screen. Winner of 19 awards. For ages 10 and older.

TWO PROSECUTORS (2025-France/Germany/Netherlands/Latvia/Romania/Lithuania/Ukraine) 118m * ½ D: Sergey Loznitsa. Alexander Kuznetsov, Aleksandr Filippenko, Anatoliy Beliy. During Stalin's great purge in 1937, an elderly prisoner is tasked with burning a large stack of letters. One letter catches his eye—it is written in blood. The letter finds its way into the hands of idealistic young prosecutor Kornyev (Kuznetsov), who endeavors to meet its author, political prisoner Stepniak (Filippenko). This beautifully acted, grimly humorous tale won 2 awards. For ages 14 and older.

THE REVENANT (2015-US) 156m  D: Alejandro González Iñárritu (BIRDMAN). Leonardo DiCaprio, Tom Hardy, Will Poulter, Domhnall Gleeson. Mauled by a bear, mountain man Hugh Glass (DiCaprio) is left for dead by his hunting party in this viscerally involving, powerful drama of survival set in 1823 in the newly charted Rockies. Cinematographer Emmanuel Lubezki delivers imagery of stunning immediacy in this three-Oscar winner (DiCaprio, Iñárritu and Lubezki). Rated R.

THE BRIDGE Episodes 2.5 & 2.6 aka Bron/Broen (2013-Sweden/Denmark) 121m  D: Morten Arnfred, Kathrine Windfeld. Sofia Helin, Kim Bodnia, Lars Simonsen, Peter Wang Christoffersen, Claes Bang. The brother of one of the slain eco-terrorists, Julian (Christoffersen), goes missing after trying to meet with his sister's killer. Soon after, a new group of four animal-masked terrorists post a video, this time targeting animal testing laboratories. Saga (Helin) struggles with her boyfriend's expectations while Martin (Bodnia) enjoys more time with his family. For ages 16 and older.

THE BRIDGE Episodes 2.7 & 2.8 aka Bron/Broen (2013-Sweden/Denmark) 121m  D: Morten Arnfred, Kathrine Windfeld. Sofia Helin, Kim Bodnia, Lars Simonsen, Julia Ragnarsson, Fredrik Hiller. Saga (Helin) and Martin (Bodnia) trace the sunken boat with skeletal remains to Marcus Stenberg (Hiller), who also owns the tanker that ran aground. Meanwhile, a chemical plant is attacked, threatening the local water source. A golden frog insignia is found at the site. Laura (Ragnarsson) remembers the face of her assailant, providing a valuable breakthrough for the case. For ages 16 and older.

ENDEAVOUR: MUSE (2018-UK) 92m  D: Brady Hood. Shaun Evans, Roger Allam, Lewis Peek, Charlotte Hope, Sara Vickers, James Bradshaw. Finally promoted to Detective Sergeant, Morse (Evans) is none too happy when saddled with supervising callow young constable George Fancy (Peek). With bewildered George dogging his heels, Morse investigates a puzzling case with two murder victims from very different worlds: an underworld ex-boxer and an Oxford don. Ever observant, coroner Dr. DeBryn says, "Cherchez la femme." For ages 14 and older.

FINDING EMILY (2026-UK/US) 111m * D: Alicia MacDonald (feature debut). Spike Fearn, Sadie Soverall, Angourie Rice. In this comedy, Manchester sound engineer Owen (Fearn) is at work at the university campus pub when he meets lovely Emily (Soverall). They, chat, dance and bond—and too soon she's dragged away by her friends. He doesn't know her last name, and the number she gave him is wrong—but he's determined to find her. His search turns up another Emily (Rice), a cynical US psychology student who offers to help him. She says Owen is "my very own Stanford Prison Experiment". Rated PG-13.

NO OTHER CHOICE aka Eo-jjeol su-ga eop-da (2025-South Korea/France) 139m * ½ D: Park Chan-wook (OLDBOY). Lee Byung-hun (Squid Game), Son Ye-jin, Park Hee-soon, Lee Sung-min, Yeom Hye-ran. After 25 years of dedication at a paper factory, Man-su (Lee Byung-hun) has it all: a well-paid job, a loving family and a beautiful home. When he is suddenly downsized, Man-su finds himself back in the brutal job market. With no other choice, he decides to eliminate the competition (quite literally) in this hilarious black comedy. Winner of 23 awards. Rated R.

REILLY ACE OF SPIES Episodes 7 & 8 (1983-UK) 103m  D: Jim Goddard. Sam Neill, Norman Rodway, Tom Bell, Kenneth Cranham, Jan Chappell, Hugh Fraser. British intelligence agent Reilly (Neill) is sent to topple the Bolsheviks during the early days of the Russian Revolution in 1917. In his audacious plan, Reilly intends to install himself as the head of state, but things go seriously awry when an assassin attempts to end Lenin's (Cranham) life in this thrilling pair of episodes. For ages 15 and older.

THE ZONE aka La zona (2007-Spain/Mexico) 92m * ½ D: Rodrigo Plá. Daniel Giménez Cacho, Daniel Tovar, Alan Chávez, Mario Zaragoza, Maribel Verdú. La Zona is a gated community in Mexico with wide clean streets lined with trees, gardens and stately homes. Just beyond the walls of this enclosure, slums spread out in every direction. One stormy evening, a billboard falls, providing a ladder into the exclusive compound for three petty criminals. While they rob a house, the elderly homeowner dies, setting off a class conflict that threatens both communities in this winner of 19 awards. Rated R.

THE RAMEN GIRL (2008-US/Japan) 102m * D: Robert Allan Ackerman. Brittany Murphy, Toshiyuki Nishida, Tammy Blanchard, Sohee Park, Renji Ishibashi. Stranded in Tokyo after breaking up with her boyfriend, Abby (Murphy) decides to learn the art of ramen at the feet of grumpy noodle-meister Maezumi (Nishida). Chef Maezumi is at first reluctant to help Abby, but when she shows her determination, he rigorously trains her to become a top-flight ramen pro. Meanwhile, Abby meets rock star wannabe Toshi (Park), who just might lure her away from her culinary studies. Rated PG-13.

ONE FOR ALL aka Uno para todos (2020-Spain) 91m * D: David Ilundain. David Verdaguer, Patricia López Arnaiz, Néstor Romero, Vega Vallés, Andrea Andrés. Substitute teacher Aleix (Verdaguer) moves to an unfamiliar village in Aragon to teach a sixth grade class. He is introduced to Carlos (Romero), a boy being treated for cancer who will be returning to school. Carlos is well-behaved and smart, and Aleix wants to re-integrate him into the class. But to Aleix's surprise, none of his students want Carlos back in this thoughtful drama. Winner of 4 awards. For ages 10 and older.

EPiC: ELVIS PRESLEY in CONCERT (2025-Australia/US) 96m  D: Baz Luhrmann (ELVIS). While doing research for his 2022 film ELVIS, director Baz Luhrmann discovered a treasure trove of unseen 35mm Elvis footage in the Warner Bros storage facility. Not all of it had corresponding soundtrack. Luhrmann edited this material into a concert documentary of startling immediacy and heart-pounding impact. From never-seen-before clips from Presley's 1957 "Gold Lamé" concert in Hawaii to his Vegas heyday in the early '70s, this is Elvis at the height of his powers as the consummate performer. Rated PG-13.
