Koko Head Lions Help Host IYC Students at Annual Diamond Head Hike

-Pres Selvin Chin-Chance

Koko Head Lions, President Selvin Chin-Chance, and members Hiro Nishida, Stan Torricer, Stanford Ito, and Mana Taylor, combined with members of the Hawaii Kai and Kaimuki Lions Club in hosting the annual IYC Diamond Head hike. Eighteen students from around the world were treated to one of the signature "Things To Do" for Hawaii visitors. Over the past week the students have been treated to a variety of activities by either their host families or sister Lions Club.

After the students were greeted on their arrival by the Lions from the three participating clubs, Koko Head Lion Stan Torricer provided the safety lecture to the student hikers making sure that they knew the basic techniques for making the hike a safe and enjoyable one (keep hydrated, follow the established pathways, rest when necessary, keep a steady pace)

Koko Head Lion Stan Ito with assistance from Lion Roger Izuka (who could not attend because of a scheduling conflict) provided, backup tables, coolers, bags of ice, bottled water and ice cream bars and frozen fruit bars. These especially the frozen novelties were greatly appreciated by the IYC students and attending Lions members.

Lions bid the IYC about mid-day when they boarded their bus their next scheduled activity at Hanauma Bay.
